Part 5	You will hear a counselor talking about a summer camp.
	Listen and complete questions 21 to 25. You will hear the information twice.
Counselor	Good morning campers and welcome to the Green River Summer Camp. My name is counselor Rick, and as it is everyone's first day, I would just like to give you some important information about the camp. As you may all ready know, the bus arrives here, at camp, at 8.30 a.m. The bus leaves the camp every day at 4.45 p.m. so you should be ready to leave by about 4.30 p.m. We advise that all campers must wear a hat and a jacket when you arrive in the morning. All campers must also bring a towel and a bathing suit, because you will have the chance to go swimming every day in the river. You should have breakfast at home before you come to camp, but the camp will provide lunch. Lunch will be eaten in the cafeteria on most days. The camp will run from Tuesday to Saturday. It will be closed on Mondays. Now I would like to ask everyone to form groups according to the colored flags you have been given, and I hope you all have fun.
	Now listen again
	This is the end of Part Five.
	This is the end of the test.
